

- 1) The 40th annual Moopy Memorial opens our 2025 season at QCC. This is a singles event that has withstood the test of time.
- 2) The first doubles event is the 26-year-old RAW DP Challenge. Scramble the first 6 holes, play alternate shot for next 6 and best ball for the final 6 holes of the day.
- 3) Cronies is the first foursome scramble of the year. The 11-year-old event is played at Cronin's.
- 4) We'll return to QCC for The International. Twosomes use a modified Stableford scoring system in this 37-year-old event.
- 5) Father's Day is celebrated for the 5th time with a foursome scramble hosted by a father and his son.
- 6) The last regular season singles event is the 37th annual 2-Day-Woody. One round of golf on consecutive days.
- 7) The last Sunday in July is marked by the 7th annual Ma Powers foursome scramble.
- 8) A decade old doubles scramble is next with The Give a DAM Memorial.
- 9) Back-to-back doubles scrambles in August. This is The Val-edictorian bringing us back to QCC.
- 10) We'll head back to Cronin's for the 14th annual MGM Grand. It's another family sponsored foursome scramble.
- 11) Another 10-year-old event on the calendar is the S.O.B. The unique format is that of a foursome best ball scoring system.
- 12) The Red, White & Blue is a 13-year-old event with some changes this year. Royal has taken over as the sponsor. The format is now a doubles shamble. And scoring no longer dictates the tee boxes used on the following hole. Just rotate from red to white to blue through the round.
- 13) The Tournament of Champions is a post season, invitational event. Individuals will have to win the cash prizes themselves. To be invited to this singles event, a player must do one of the following: (criteria subject to alteration)

a) Play in at least 6 regular season events

b) Win one regular season event and play in at least 4

c) Be a past T.O.C. winner and play in at least 4
regular season events
